“ My name is Amy Snead. My mom Sue White became friends with Jim when he lived at the Heritage. Through my mom, my husband Ken and I became friends with Jim as well. During many visits with my mom on my way in or on my way home I would find Jim sitting outside on the Heritage patio. I would sit and talk with him, always enjoying his company. I would ask him if he had been to Napoleon as I observed his haircut and his truck washed . He would say he had been there. I would always ask him if he got to visit his dog which he always seemed excited about. Jim will be greatly missed by Sue White, along with Amy and Ken Snead. So very sorry for your loss, Jim was a good man.
