“ So sorry on the loss of Doc (Jim)...I came to the funeral home today after work to pay my respects to a wonderful man. I am the manager of Cut Rate Tobacco where Doc was a customer for quite a while. He was liked by all of us.

You may be wondering why I, as well as a lot of the regular customers called him Doc...One day I was not at work and Doc came in and asked where I was, the girl said I was at a doctors apt. He said oh no is she sick? The girl said no, she's just there for her yearly check up. The next day he came in saying I hung my shingle on my door, next time you need services let me know....thus the name Doc...

Another time when Doc hadn't been in the store for a few days I began to worry about him and wanted to check on him, but since all we ever called him was Doc I didn't know who to call (he had been in the hospital), when he came into the store again I told him I wanted his phone number so I could call and check on him if it happened again. I did call him after that and when he answered the phone he made a joke about how long it had been since a lady had called him.

Two years ago when my daughter Kelli graduated from high school I told Doc I wanted him to come to the party and eat lunch with me. He showed up with a crockpot of what he called his world famous baked beans and then laughed when his were eaten before mine were.

I just want to say how sorry we are for your loss and to let you know he was loved by us, the workers and a lot of the customers, some of who believed he was a Doctor....

REST IN PEACE DOC!!!!
