“ To Norma, Lori, Todd and the entire Helmke family I send you all lots of love and feel much gratitude for having known Jim. How I enjoyed talking with Jim and his down-home, no-nonsense way of viewing life and the challenges that we all face in life. His sense of humour was priceless. Jay, my Father, loved visiting with Jim and those two could talk for hours about all kinds of things, including farming, politics and other things. My family enjoyed time with Jim and Norma at their Coldwater Lake home. Mom, Dad and I played cards at their Jewel home. I well remember Everett's high school graduation party on Lori and Mark's farm and the yummy ice cream. We had a number of meals together various places including in Jewell and the Barn Restaurant in Archbold. I can easily imagine how much all of you are missing Jim and that he and Jay will soon have a good yarn to spin once they meet up in the world of Spirit. Blessings to each one of you during this sad time of loss and grieving. Sending you all much love from Larry Beck in New Zealand

“ From the frozen tundra of Korea to fields and forests of war-torn Europe to the jungles of Southeast Asia, from the deserts of Kuwait and Iraq to the mountains of Afghanistan, brave patriots have protected our nation’s ideals, rescued millions from tyranny, and helped spread freedom around the globe. America’s veterans answered the call when asked to protect our nation from some of the most brutal oppression the world has ever known. Military service demands a special kind of sacrifice. The places where you are sent to live and serve bring risk every day. From the time you put on that uniform for the first time, the interests of the nation move to the forefront and define your life. Those duties are shared by family members who make many sacrifices of their own, sometimes bearing the burden of losing a loved one. Service brings rewards as well. There is the pride in developing one’s own character, serving a cause far greater than self-interest. Every person who wears America’s uniform is part of a long, unbroken line of achievement and honor. No single military power in history has done greater good, shown greater courage, liberated more people or upheld higher standards of decency and valor than the Armed Forces of the United States of America. That is a legacy to be proud of and those who contributed to it must never be taken for granted. To honor our veterans, we must keep the promises we have made to them. We must care for those who have been injured in the service of our country. We must honor and remember those who have died. And we must remember those whose fate is still undetermined. We fly the Prisoner of War flag on Veterans Day for a reason, to show that this nation will not relent until we have accounted for every one of our missing Americans. Thank you for your service. Thank you for all that you have sacrificed for this great nation. Thank you for being the backbone of America.
