“ It was 1982 or 1983. The James and Mary Rose Shotwell family arrived in Deshler, Ohio, to serve the Deshler Presbyterian Church. Son Edmund, attended Patrick Henry High School. In the music program he met Annette Marie Jones and a loving friendship began with Annette and her parents, Jim and Beverly Jones. We have all shared a bond in Jesus Christ as our grace-giving Lord and Savior. Joyful events followed in their home and ours. Now 31 years later James E. Jones has been called from this life to the Church Triumphant in heaven. Precious Memories from Christian living sustain us in our grief and our trusting Hope as God's gift of "Life Everlasting" and unbroken "Communion of Saints" continue loving comfort and joy. Thankful for Jim Jones we are thankful deeply for his fellowship and gracious love with us in our Savior. God Bless the Jones family and children, grand children and great grand children. - Retired Pastor Jim Shotwell Sr and family.
