“ Jim was one of a kind . He liked everything in it's place. I remember when we played cards one of the women put a pop can in the trash he would hop in his wheelchair roll in the kitchen take it out and put it in recycle. I loved that man like a brother . I'm gonna miss him.

“ I really never got to meet Jim, but I do know most of his family and friends. I'm sorry for your loss. I only knew Jim by his reputation, and what a wonderful reputation it was. What a great love he demonstrated for his Lord, and knowing he shared that love of God with all that knew him. Its a wonderful thing, knowing our Lord has taken him home, and provided him perfect healing. God Bless each of you, with this knowledge.
