“ I have such love for Jane. She always had the kindest heart and a great laugh. Our majorette days were the best in high school. Spending nights out on the farm, playing in the barn so cool for a kid. Trip to Florida, in each other's weddings both in 1976. The impact she made on her children and all the family and the residents and staff that totally loved her so much at Northcrest. She will be missed forever and never forgotten. I envision her walking hand in hand with her beloved Daniel and parents and smiling so happy to be free and experiencing no pain!! I will love you forever my friend till we meet again stay in Jesus loving arms your are a sweet flower in his garden. RONDA Rae 🙏
