“ Jason was such a great neighbor and friend. He would often stop by the shop & home to chat with Bruce. I would often run into him in the carry-out or chat with him on-line. He was so caring of us & our children, always willing to help when he could. Our neighbor hood lost a great friend, his wife a caring husband & the boys a great father. I'm so sorry for your loss, will continue to keep you in prayer & ask God for your healing & strength.

Jason was a wonderful person and great cousin. I remember being at the old house and him picking at me but that is how you knew he cared about you. He was a hard worker and loved his family. He will be greatly missed. May GOD help his family to have peace and understanding through all this. My heart goes out to them. Jason will be missed by many but never forgotten. Peace and love from Tennessee goes out to his family. Love you guys.

Jason was definitely one of a kind, always helping others when ever he could. Although it wasn't easy for him sometimes, he never let it stop him. If a friend, neighbor, relative needed help Jason would be there, always with a smile. A dear person that will be missed by all the people whose lives he touched.
