“ Last Sunday at church, Jim asked for prayers for his son. I, a Steelers fan, had a check to give to the church in respect of Jim, a devoted Browns fan. I sit one row in front of Jim ever since the church open its doors almost two years ago. His prayer for Jeff was heard by all who joined as one to take Jeff to heaven or to help him recover. We now know the rest of the story about his passing on that very same day. God's will for God's people is always right. We will look forward to the day when our "loved ones" all get together in heaven and maybe even his beloved dog and cat. May we continue to care-encourage-love-listen-forgive one another in remembrance of Jesus and Jeffrey.
