She helped my oldest child transition into high school and gave him the confidence to shine and advocate for himself. She'll be greatly missed. I am so sorry to hear of her passing*

“ Dear Dushaw/Wensink families,

I am so deeply saddened to hear of your loss. I only met Jennifer a few times through Jack and Claudia. She was always smiling and seemed like she enjoyed life. She was always very kind. She was a beautiful woman. May the Lord give you peace in this difficult time. May the arms of Jesus comfort you all and especially for young Cole.

In Christ's love,

“ *Wensink/Dushaw Families~ We are were so sad to hear of Jenn's passing. Our paths crossed often over the past many years through the jobs we worked to family and friends we had in common. We pray you feel the support and comfort being sent to each of you from those whose lives Jenn touched and that you endure this journey of loss and heartache knowing many people care and wish things were different for you. May Gods love reign over you and bring you little moments of joy and special memories to treasure. We light a green candle in honor of Cole's love of John Deere!

“ To the family of Jenn.....Words cannot express the sorrow and sadness I feel at this difficult time. Jenn was my supervisor a work, and myself and other therapists met on December 19 with her to have a little Christmas celebration. She was very thoughtful and gave us all a small gift. She was always very conscientious and she tried her best to be the kind of leader who was available whenever you had a question. She had many pictures of her son all over her office area.....She was a proud mama.....Praying that you all will feel the presence of the Holy Spirit surrounding you and comforting you as you turn Jenn's life over the to Lord.... With much sympathy,
