“ Jerry had this effortless and innate ability to light up a room when he entered. He was inquisitive and truly had an amazing way of connecting with others. Jerry had an amazing spirit, a warm and gentle way about him and it has left an imprint on my heart.

“ Tom and Vivian and family. I am saddened to see this. I remember working with Tom at First Call For Help and how proud he was of Jerry. I was able to meet him on several occasions, each time there were always smiles to go around. Rest in Peace Jerry.. you have earned that. Tom & Vivian, may you each find peace and consonance in each other. Carry your memories of Jerry strong in your heart and off of your lips. Donna (Zachrich) Fowler

“ Jerry was full of life! He lived his life through what he could see & hear & experience. But, He was trapped in a crippled body that made him wheelchair bound most all of his life. Don't let that fool you, he was one smart guy! You knew what he was thinking with just one look from him, or one word.

He had a Big Heart. He was Full Of Love! He LOVED his family! He was the most wonderful person anyone could ever have the privilege of meeting. He had a smile that no one could resist. He was more than a Brother-in-Law to me. He was my Best Friend, my Confidant, My 'Secret Pal', My Kissing Bandit, My reason for moving to Ohio.

Many people knew Jerry in different ways. We all grieve for him in different ways. We should remember him in a fun, full of life, Loving way because that is what Jerry would have wanted. He was Lovable, Happy Friendly, Entertaining, Smart, Adorable, and sometimes Grouchy if he didn't get his way!

But now he is free from his pain and at PEACE. It is the rest of us left behind that will be grieving because we will be lost without him. We need to come together and celebrate Jerry's life. He loved his Family, his Friends, his Holidays, and he will be sadly missed by many, many people. May you find comfort across the rainbow, Jerry. With Love, Cindy a.k.a. Your Secret Pal

“ Tom & Viv, Michelle & families - So sorry to hear about Jerry's passing. I will miss seeing him and him sticking his tongue out at me giving me a hard time. No matter how long it had been in between times we saw each other, he was always happy to see me and had a smile for me. He was a kind soul and I will miss him. Find comfort in God's words. Sending hugs to you all.

Jerry always had a way of making any bad day better for me. I will greatly miss seeing that smile and him sticking his tongue out at me as I am told that meant he liked me. I am so sorry that I can't be there for you guys. I cant believe my Pig is gone. I will miss him telling me to shut up and him calling me big eye. I know he is in a better place now and he is not confined to that chair. He will be badly missed. I can see him running and playing now for the first time, so I am happy for that. God must have finally got that special place ready for him.

All our love and prayers go to you Tom & Viv. Keep your faith and God will help you through this.
