“ Grandmothers and mothers have been a part of our lives since birth, so it is only natural that their loss is profound. All the memories and love you shared are not gone. They will be yours to treasure for the rest of your life. I hope they bring you comfort as you travel this difficult path. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. I am heartbroken for Paul also as they were always a team and supported each other through whatever came their way. She was a wonderful person and will be missed by many.

“ Jill (former earth angel now heavenly angel) was always a lot of fun to be around. So many funny memories its hard to pick one. About 45 years ago we were both pregnant and on a roadtrip to Cleveland with our husbands. We broke down on the turnpike and the men left us behind with the vehicle. It was 100 degrees in the shade and we were there for hours. We both got sick and threw up on the roadside in tandem. Just than an ohio trooper pulled up and took pity on us preggos in the heat and waited with us while we sat in his air conditioned cruiser for several hours. He gave our husbands hell when they returned. Rest in peace dear friend. Becky Barney
