“ Sending our sincere sympathy to Tim & Troy. I was married to Joan's cousin Dick Nagel years ago and we spent some really good times with Joannie & Tom when we were first married and we lived in Kentucky and they lived in Southern Indiana. I'm sorry that I cannot be at the memorial on Tuesday but I will keep you in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Joanie and I were pals when we were little girls....since our birthdays were just 4 days apart, I have a picture of us with the tray of cupcakes we shared with our kindergarten class at Emanuel Lutheran. Joanie and I reconnected just a couple years ago on Facebook and it was just lovely to get re-acquainted. My parents and I lived on Garden Street in Napoleon until 1950 when we moved to Defiance and thought about Joanie once in awhile over the years we played together a lot and I have fond memories of that time. I am sorry for her loss and pray for comfort and happy memories for all who loved her. Marianna (Bolley) Sadowski
