“ Jean, just wanted to send my deepest condolences and sympathy to you for the loss of your brother, John. As you know, we grew up just a couple doors down from your house and John was not just a classmate, but also a good boyhood friend with whom I spent countless hours playing "cowboys and indians" and other childhood games. Your late brother Jerry was also one of my brother Pat's best friends. May God give you strength and peace at this difficult time and may God grant John eternal peace.

“ John was a classmate of mine at Damascus Local School in McClure. He was always one of the tallest guys in our class and we had our fun with John's dry sense of humor. We all were saddened when he fell ill on the day our class was celebrating our 50th high school reunion in McClure. He was supposed to be there with us and I understand was looking forward to it. John is a special part of our memories of school days together. Sincerely, Nancy Johnson Haton
