“ Doris, It's been a long time since I chatted with you but saw John's obituary and do extend to you and your family my sincere sympathy. You had many years together but that doesn't make the final farewell any easier. May your faith sustain you at this time of grief. In sympathy, Dora Titgemeyer

“ Linda (and the Family of John Beck);

Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. It's difficult to lose someone who means so much. I'm sure he will be greatly missed but you will always have the memories of your father and you will think of him often. (I know). Always cherish your family.
