“ Dear James, Deb, Jimmy, and Mariah,
I was so sad to hear the news of Jordan passing away. I of course remember him most as a sweet , ever smiling, young boy of 5! I know that he grew into a fine young man that you can be proud of. He will be missed by many and especially by you. He is with our Lord now and that gives us comfort and peace. You will all be in my prayers!

“ Then shall come to pass the saying that is written: “Death is swallowed up in victory.”

“O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting?”The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. ~ 1 Cor. 15:54-57

James, Deb, Jim, & Mariah,

My heart breaks for you all during this difficult time, but may remember that death has not won. Death has lost its sting because of Christ own death on the cross for Jordan and for all who believe in Him. Victory doesn't belong to death but Victory belongs to Jesus Christ alone who rose from the grave and belongs to all who are united to Him in faith.

"For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him in order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin. For one who has died has been set free from sin. Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him"
Romans 6:5-8

You're in my prayers that you might have the peace of God which surpasses all understanding and that you to may live in the shadow of the cross which covers all sin and has defeated death.

“ James family,

The Carpenter family sends our deepest condolences. I didn't know Jordan all that well, we worked together for a short time, here at Sigma, and of course Jim became someone I consider a good friend. Jordan was a fine young man. Your family is in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Our thoughts are with you in this time of devastating loss. We have followed Jordan's brave fight against cancer from afar, and admired how all of you pulled together during these difficult times. We hope you can now find solace in knowing that all of you did everything you possibly could.

The battle against cancer goes on and with every case comes new and important knowledge that will benefit future generations. We will therefore honor Jordan's memory by donating money to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.

Our warmest condolences
