“ Our family moved next door to Joe 4 years ago. He was a welcoming and kind neighbor to us from day one. He always took the time to say hi to my children and talk with my spouse and I. He was always smiling and it was apparent he was a hardworking person with a big heart for others. We are going to greatly miss him. Praying for peace and comfort in the days ahead. -Dustin, Allyson, Landon, and Archer Smith

“ Joe was one of the most unselfish, caring agents with whom I have ever had the pleasure of working. He was truly a champion of those clients who needed expertise not all agents possess. He readily shared that expertise with anyone willing to learn. Many times I went to him for his advice. He worked equally hard for all his clients regardless of price range or social stature. He was truly one of a kind-comfortable in his own skin and willing to help anyone in need. He will indeed be missed.
