“ Ohhhh dear friend! I cannot find the words! Now you can take your peaceful rest and not work so hard. Last time we spoke, less than two weeks ago; you told me you were tired. And I fussed at you “ out of pure love” like I’ve always did for years. Thank you for coming to my life at an unexpected time, we both needed each other friendship. Love and continued strength to your family.....you will forever be my Kare Bear.

“ Kari was kind to my father. She was good to her mother, and she LOVED her daughter. She was patient, forgiving and loved animals. She was a gentle and kind soul that I wish I had got to know better. Prayers for all the family. She was a bright star in a dim world.

“ Kari and I met in 2017, and over time, we became incredibly close friends. Our morning conversations before work became a cherished routine, filled with meaningful chats and laughter that carried us through the day. She was not only my work buddy but also my lunch buddy, always bringing a smile and her unforgettable, infectious laugh. Kari filled our office with warmth, sass, kindness, and joy. Her presence made every day brighter, and work simply won't be the same without her. My continued thoughts and prayers are with you Madi, "Granny" and Shawn 💕
