“ Dear Family and Friends, My Aunt Juliet was a good and wonderful lady. I regret, I did not have more time with her as an adult. She was one who ALWAYS helped every one else. She was an independent and feisty lady and it is what has kept her going all these years. She survived all her siblings and did it was class and dignity. To all of you who have been her support and comfort the last years, thank you for being there for her. Sorry, I can not make the funeral service but my thoughts and prays will be with you. I will send a memorial to her church. Her religion meant a lot to her. I know she is happy meeting everyone up in heaven and is no longer in pain or discomfort. Love to all, Mae McCarthy (Mabel Anne Beauchamp)##imported-begin##Mabel Anne Beauchamp Mccarthy##imported-end##
