“ My sincere sympathy to the family of Roy (Biff) Kline. I was a life time friend and a fellow class mate of 12 years at our school life at Jackson School in Hoytville. I consider him as a fine person and was glad to call him a good buddy. I am sorry that I will not be able to attend his funeral, but my memories of him will remain with me the remainder of my life. “ A very tough year. First Ma(Ruth)and now Biff. I am filled with a feeling of loss. I am blessed to have known the Kline family. Kenton will not be the same without Biff harrassing the people passing by. Biff, you will be sorely missed but forever remembered.##imported-begin##James Dutkiewicz##imported-end##
