

Kronberg M. Velma

January 1, 2011

Velma M. (Staub) Kronberg, 95, of Milton Center, Ohio passed away January 1, 2011 at Wood County Hospital in Bowling Green, Ohio. She was born April 22, 1915 in Damascus Township to the late Herman H. and Inez (Cleveland) Staub. Velma graduated from McClure High School and attended Stautzenberger Business College. On October 13, 1937, she married Clarence W. Kronberg in Weston, Ohio, who preceded her in death on July 23, 1998. Velma was a homemaker and a clerk for Milton Center Village Council for many years. She was a cook for Bowling Green State University from 1963 to 1978 and aircraft spotter in the Custar Area for a number of years. She was a very active member of the former Milton Center Presbyterian Church where she organized dinners, blood drives, various projects and activities within the church and community. She was also a member of the local Mental Progress Club and the Farm Bureau. She enjoyed cooking, baking, sewing, crocheting and cross-stitching, but spending time with her family was her greatest passion. She is survived by a daughter, Betty (Robert) Kidd of Bowling Green, Ohio, sons, James (Eunice) Kronberg and Terry (Mary) Kronberg of Whitehouse, Ohio, grandchildren, Jennifer Kronberg, Kathleen (Eric) Heckert, Amy (Neal) Fifer, Lisa (Jerry) Stirn, Barbara (Mike) Jager, William (Penny) Kidd, Drew (Michelle) Kronberg, Erin Kronberg and 12 Great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by a brother, Raymond Staub. Funeral services will be held on Wednesday, January 5, 2011 at 11:00 a.m. at the Plain Congregational Church, 16011 W. Poe Road, Bowling Green,

Ohio officiating Pastor Scott Estep. Following a lunch and fellowship, interment will be held at Milton Twp. Cemetery in Custar, Ohio at 2:30 p.m. Visitation will be held on Tuesday at Rodenberger Funeral Home in McClure from 2-8 p.m. and 1 hour prior to services at the church on Wednesday. The family suggests memorials to the Grand Rapids Care Center, Wood County Hospital Foundation, or to a charity of the donor's choice.
