“ She will be missed. Your house was my 2nd home for a few summers and I remember them as good times. In my mind she's sitting around a table having coffee with Jane, Bob & Dawn talking about softball and telling them everything that's gone wrong with McClure since they left. :)###imported-begin###Wendy Korak Carlston###imported-end##

“ Gin, Tony, Carolyn & Mary (and families)- My deepest sympathy goes out to you all. What great memories we share, of softball days and growing up together. Your Mom was a good friend and coach to many. She set us all a good example of how to be tough when needed, whether on the softball field or in other times of adversity. You always knew, when she got that look, someone better watch out! Umps beware! Take comfort in knowing that she is at peace and at rest, no more suffering. So sorry I couldn't be there for you - God bless you all! Laurie Schey”
