“ Dear Kathy, the last couple of days have been thinking a lot about you and your mom. My favorite memory of her was at your home on Thistle. Smile when I think about it. She was making curtains for your windows. Huge, dazzling, white sheets everywhere!! And we were all under threat of severe punishment if we happened to let them touch the floor, no dirt or smudges allowed!!
Know it's a very tough time now, but I hope your and your family can remember some of the funny times and laugh together.
Take care and hugs, Patty

“ Dear Kathy and Family,
Your Mother was always so kind and caring - John and I stopped in unexpectedly on her as we were passing through Ohio on our way to Niagra Falls on vacation. We called about an hour before to ask if we could stop in for a visit. She not only greeted us with open arms, but made dinner and dessert, and insisted on us staying the night! We had so many laughs, and she even let John into her kitchen - her private domain! You had a wonderful mother, and we're so glad you had a lifetime with her! Love, AJ & John Steirer

“ Kathy and family,

I was sorry to hear the news of your mother's death as I know it will leave a hole in your hearts. I will always remember your mom's keen eye in spotting a photo and news of a scholarship program for nurse education through the Army [the WRAIN Program] that changed my life forever. But even more, I remember your mom for the warmth she shared with friends of her children and the laughter and joy she always seemed to find in life. She surely touched the world for the good in many ways and left it far better for her having walked the earth. As the pain of loss eases, may all of you hold your special memories of her close for lasting joy.
