“ Our sincere condolences to you and the family. I picked tomatoes and pickles for Lawrence back in the late 60s and early 70s. Not only was He a fair man, but a kind man with a great sense of humor. Lawrence was not only a good man, but a good friend.

“ I remember your dad and mine serving on church council many times together over the years. I also remember when he broke his back and how straight he walked after he healed. I also remember how very well mannered he was and how he was so caring and protective he was of your mom. He was definitely an "old school" gentleman, something not seen much anymore. My sister, Karen and I send our sympathies and prayers to you all and your families. The fields and flowers of Heaven will be even more glorious now.
