*Larry was very dear to me. In his younger days, he spent some time renting one of Dad's rentals in Monrovia, CA. He brought endless joy to my parents who loved him dearly as well. We had lots of laughs camping in Arizona, unforgettable memories. Every time we crossed paths, we ended up laughing ourselves silly. Our families lived far apart, but even on occasional visits, we always shared joy and laughs.
The news of his passing is heartbreaking, but he is at peace and with all his family who proceeded him. Larry, enjoy your new journey, your loving cousin, Myra.*
