“ I am so very sorry for your loss. I am at a loss for words to express just how much joy and love he brought to my life. So many of my memories and old photographs have his sweet smile in them. From snowmobiling to swimming in your pond to laughing for day's at the country concerts, he was such a good man. Jason is in a big part of my heart and always will be. You are all in my prayers and my thoughts. I am so sorry! I pray for your strength and faith to be strong. Heather Wallace-Kasprzyk###imported-begin###Heather Wallace-kasprzyk###imported-end##

“ Sharon & Roger~ We are thinking of you at this sad time. Sharon, I will always remember Jason as a little tot, trying to put peanuts into Keri's mouth in her crib when she was a few months old, saying, mom Keri likes peanuts! I will see you monday at the Funeral. Bill & I are coming then. I hope you can find a little peace & comfort in your heart to help ease the burden of such a loss. I am praying for you, Roger & Keri. I am here any time you need me. Just give me a call day or night. Love, Sue & Bill###imported-begin###Sue & Bill Hainen###imported-end##

“ Sharon, Roger, Keri & Family â€“ Words cannot express the loss and pain you are feeling during this trying time. Know that my heart is with each and every one of you right now â€“ sharing in your loss. The world lost a beautiful person the day God called Jason home, but we must know that he is in a much better place now with no suffering or stress. He will forever be remembered by anyone who was lucky enough to have known him. His smile was one that could light up the room â€“ without saying a word. Thoughts and prayers. “ So sorry to hear about your loss. I know his friends and neighbors in Grelton will miss him dearly. Now Ken will have someone else to discuss the machanics of cars and racing, and solve the world problems with, just like they use to.
