“ My sincere sympathy to Lillian's family. I'm sure she was a blessing to you and you to her. I had known Lillian from the time we were young girls at St. Paul Lutheran Church, Napoleon Township. We were confirmed together in 1940. For a couple years i saw her quite regularly as we were both employed by the Ridgeville Schools. Although she is no longer with you, memories will always connect you. May the Lord's comfort and peace be yours at this time of grief.
