“ My Aunt Louise was a wonderful woman. She was the last of the children of Ida and Albert Elling to be with us before entering her eternal home to be with her Lord and many loved ones in heaven. She graced us with her kindness, wisdom, strength, and example of Christian living.

Aunt Louise was a lot of fun to talk with! She was a wonderful sister to my mother Eleonore and they would talk regularly on the phone. When I would visit her, we would great conversations about her sisters and brothers and parents and what Napoleon was like in "the old days". She kept me updated on her large family which she loved so much, was still interested in what was going on in the world today,(We were both Democrats and talked politics), and was an artist in her own right with her needlework, always working on something and reading a new book. I would many times leave her at the end of a visit with some excellent baked good to take home. She knew I had a sweet tooth.

She was just like her other sisters and brothers, a generation that worked very hard, were committed to their families and friends, contributed to society, had a deep faith, and had common sense in abundance. She had much to teach, us as she had seen and experienced a lot in her ninety plus years, both joy and sorrow. I will miss her very much, but I know she is in a really good place now and filled with joy.

Her nephew,
