“ Was a good neighbor here at the apartment building. There are 2 things I will never forget about him.

1. In his duties as a Deputy I saw him Football tackle a runner one time.

2. Every year for the month of my Birthday every time he saw me he would yell " Happy Birthday Becky."

He will be missed.

“ I had always heard about my "cousin", Butch, growing up but I had never met him until I moved to Grand Rapids. He was the police chief and It was here I got to know him. He was funny, and caring. The town kids respected him. I even went to his bar a couple times after he opened it. Such a great guy. Rest In Peace, Butch.
