“ Nancy and I met as roommates freshman year at Valpo. Nancy's mom sent her wonderful homemade treats and I looked forward to these care packages as much as Nancy did. Road trips to her wonderful parents farm were highlights of my Valpo years.
My deepest sympathy to Nancy and all her family.
Love, Jan Curtin

“ I knew “Lucy” through her daughter, Nancy Hoover, my close friend since college. I spent time with Lucy a only few times but what an impression she made! She was a farmer, cook, homemaker, craftsperson, community volunteer, mom, devoted wife, and superwoman. I don't think there was anything she couldn't do if it needed to be done. Once she knew you she remembered you and showed a genuine interest in your life and family anytime she saw you. She and Walter were a great couple who enjoyed each other's company, respected and appreciated each other. I have been privileged to know them and Nancy and the rest of their wonderful family. Love and sympathy to you all. Sincerely, Marcia Ohlemiller

“ Dear Aunt Lucia, I can only imagine the joy you are experiencing being in heaven for Christmas this year. Even though loved ones left behind will miss you greatly, we have the peace of knowing we will see you again when we get to heaven. I'm grateful for the many fond memories to remind us of the wonderful times we shared while you were here.

Love, prayers and sympathy to Nancy, Jane, Joyce and Mary Beth and their families.
