“ So many memories of our old neighbors, George and his wonderful wife—he always called her “Shug” which I always assumed-short for Sugar!! What a fun couple. In their cute little home they would watch wildlife (birds, squirrels, and more out their grand back window!! They were always so welcoming!! “Together Again” sharing memories of a beautiful family!! George always ask my dad if he could help him shovel snow—of course when it was 90 degrees!! Always a bunch of laughs!! Our sincere sympathies to you all -sorry we were gone ❤️❤️
