“ I (Lynn) always held a special memory of Whitey when, as a teenager, he would take me coon hunting, and I had special memories of Marcille through Whitey. Karen and I loved the times we spent taking polka lessons with Whitey and Marcille, and Ned and Maxine, at the old Ridgeville school. I talked to Rick a few weeks ago, after Marcille was admitted to hospice, but I missed the fact that she died. We always loved Marcille's independent spirit and her love of everything. We'll never forget her.
