“ My sincere sympathy for the family of Marilyn. She was such a nice woman and will be sadly missed by me and all my fellow van drivers for Integrity Ambulance service. We had the pleasure of getting to know her in our long trips to dialysis and back. There will be an empty spot in our lives but she will always be in our hearts.

“ Kempf family,
It was a blessing to have Marilyn part of my life she was a special person who would brag about her kids grandkids and how she did things with her husband. I meet her at the nursing home with having my husband in there and was blessed to go with them shopping several times and pushed her to get what she needed plus she was happy how i always shopped clearance she loved it and spent the day at the fair with them. God bless you all you are all in my prayers. Lee and Angie Gill
