“ Marjorie and Harold were my parents friends for over 50 years. They enjoyed many trips together and lots of New Years Eve parties with the gang from church. We have many happy memories of those early days of us kids playing together and going to vacation bible school. Marjorie was always kind. I can hear her laughter. Love to all the family from Ruth Norris, Dan and Penny

“ Marj was my second mom growing up. She sewed costumes for us and she made the dresses for my daughter and I for Deb’s wedding. She pierced my ears. There were lots of sleep overs, parties and fun times spent at the Altherr’s. She was a special person in my life and will be deeply missed. My thoughts and prayers go out to the family.
