“ Dear Eldor, Diane & Doug, Carol & Ed, Denny & Kim, Jamie, Jason & Alec, Jenny, Brandon, Kara & William.

Words cannot express the sympathy and love we feel for all of you at this time. Elder & Margie, Orville & I share a special bond in that we share our grandchildren, Jamie & Jenny. The girls carry all our genes and it has been an honor and privilege to have this connection.

It looks like our health will prevent us from joining you in person on Wednesday but we will be there in spirit.

Laura, Rob & Linda join us in sending their, sympathy, love and prayers to you during this time.

I am sending a memorial check c/o Ed & Carol for your family to use however you wish.

from the family of Orville & Ellen Lazenby

“ Denny, Diane and Carol,

Our family's thoughts and prayers are with you and Eldor. You were more than neighbors to our family - our parents have been life-long friends. In fact, my mom just mentioned how she and your mom enjoyed a nice phone conversation a few weeks ago.

I will always remember sharing a party line, Eldor's bread truck and your mom's laugh.

All our sympathies,

Brett, Michele (Fry), Jameson, Joseph and Treg Meyer

*Dear Eldor & family:
Class of '48 fellow members with Marjorie talked about her yesterday as we had lunch. That's Herb Huddle, Roger Jaqua, and myself. Carolyn Jaqua was also with us in spirit as we had lunch. May God's peace and Christ's love carry you through the days to come as you learn to live without Marjorie's presence.
Sincerely, Norm Imbrock*
