“ Ohhhh I loved Margie!!! She babysat us in the 70's. I remember going to her house in the wee hours of the morning, dropped off on Mom's way to work at Pilliod's in Swanton. I would try to go back to sleep on her couch in the living room with 70s soft rock playing quietly on her big turntable/ stereo in the living room. She was such a sweet lady and made the best grilled cheese!!! Still not a fan of pigs in the blanket (cabbage rolls), Margie! But she never made us eat what we didn't like. She was the picture of soft spoken grace.
