“ I have so many memories of Mark starting from when I was 10 years old and him water skiing at the river In 1962. In 2014 we visited him and Brenda at the river and it was such a wonderful day of boating and visiting all day. What a love Mark was. He meant so much to me. My prayers are for all the family and I know he's resting with the Lord and his mom, dad & brothers. I'll miss you Mark. 🙏

“ I had the privilege of growing up with Mark, as he was my cousin. He was always such a joy to be around. My family was pretty musically talented so we always had our own band. Mark could put a smile on your face when he played his accordion and sang. Oh how we all will miss him. I love you, Mark!
