“ My Mary, I shall miss you in so many ways. You were a beautiful side-kick for me, helping however I asked, going on road trips, staying late nights to get pictures ready for the athletes at Napoleon and LC. Over 10 years of loyalty. Always eager to learn new skills and there to put our tanners in tan beds, keeping rooms clean. There was never a task you were not above and never a skill you refused to learn. A blessing in so many ways, we shared secrets and bounced ideas...I missed you when you went on medical leave, I miss you more that I know you will never again be my sounding board. Sure hope you talk loud enough from Heaven that I get the messages I need to hear! I love you "Little Mary Burdue". Our loss is Heaven's gain.
