“ So sorry for your loss! He lived on the street behind me. Always nice to talk to him. A few weeks ago my car broke down just down the road from my house. He had stopped by to offer any help he could. Super nice guy! I will miss our conversations together.

“ I got to know Mike during a time of living in the same Napoleon neighborhood. He was a unique person always looking out for his neighbors trying to be friends and being helpful. He could fix anything! He loved Halloween and handing out treats to the little ghosts. Mike, my wish for you is to be free of pain and to enjoy eternal rest.

“ Mike was a truly congenial and warm hearted man. Yes, his sense of humor was his greeting card. And I only knew him through my career as a phlebotomist, but one gets pretty personal. I am sorry for your family loss, but I believe Mike's soul is at peace. With sincere condolences, Jana L Huffman-Von Deylen
