“ When mike would enter a room the first thing you would see is that big smile. It was not long and everyone would be smiling. I also like to watch him play basketball . Best man to shoot three from the corners. That was his shot. But most of all he was friends with everybody. That the way I remember him.

“ To Mikes family; We worked with Mike at Cooper. He loved His LORD and His Word. He had an evangelist heart and wanted to share his heart with all the people the LORD put in his path. He was faithful to encourage other believers and keep them in prayer. Mike is living the promises of God now. May the LORD meet your needs at this time. God Bless you....Mike thank you for your humble example of Gods love.

“ *To Mike's Family-
We have only know Mike for a few short years, but feel as if we have been his friends much longer. We met him and know him as members of The BG Church of The Nazarene. He was such an easy person to like and his gift to recite the words of the Lord was such an amazing and blessed gift. We always enjoyed talking with him at church and sharing a Sunday morning of prayer. We will dearly miss seeing Mike at church and his chair will be empty, but the spirit of his love for our Lord will always be apart of our church. Mike was truly a very special friend.
Our sincere thoughts and prayers are with all of you.*
