“ My siblings and I had the most wonderful times staying with my godparents, Norma Jean and Carl, and our wonderful cousins, Alan and Lisa, at the farm in the summertime. Norma Jean and Carl were both such loving, fun, and godly people to be with. Norma Jean served people continually, always working on a project for someone, always taking things in stride, never petty or irritated, because she was thinking of others. What a role model! What great memories we have of those visits! May their memory be eternal!

“ Lisa, Alan and family, There are no words to express how much love and respect I have for your mom. We worked together for years and she always was a part of our extended family. Her dedication to Yoder and Frey and to our parents was second to none. What a beautiful smile she always wore and an equally beautiful heart.....she will be missed by many and always loved.
