“ Rest In Peace sweet cousin Norma. You were the kindest most caring person that God put on this earth. You had a smile and a positive attitude no matter what the circumstance. The world needs more people like you. You will be missed.

“ Elwood, so sorry to hear about your loss. We knew she hadn't been well for some time. I think I've known both of you since I was 5 years old. Almost made daily trips to the carry out. Always remembered when it was meal time. Could always smell it through out the whole store! Didn't really know Norma as well as we knew you from your house calls to fix something.
Please accept our condolences for your loss. Please feel free to stop by and visit any time.
