

Norma "Toot" Nagel

December 21, 1926 - June 15, 2018

Norma "Toot" Nagel, 91, of Defiance passed away June 15, 2018 at Brookview Healthcare Center. She was born on December 21, 1926 in Flatrock Township to the late Carl and Ella (Welz) Vajen. She is a graduate of Florida High School.

On November 30, 1947 Norma married Eldin "Lefty" Nagel. They lived on the family farm in Adams Township. She was a faithful member of St. Mark's Lutheran Church where she served as a Sunday School teacher and an active member of WELCA, holding many offices. She was a 4-H advisor and avid Tinora sports fan. Norma enjoyed mowing the lawn and playing cards, but she loved to quilt.

Norma is survived by her daughters, Nadine (Gary) Lero and Robin Trudel both of Defiance; grandchildren, Collin (Allison) Trudel, Grant Trudel, Tricia (Brandon) Murphy, and Stacie (Kent) Bloodworth; and 7 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, son, Timothy Nagel; parents, and siblings Robert Vajen, Rosella Lee, Lloyd Vajen, Mildred Tomanicek; and son-in-law James Trudel.

Funeral Service for Norma will be held on Tuesday, June 19, 2018 at 11:00 a.m. at St. Mark's Lutheran Church.

Visitation will be held on Monday, June 18, 2018 from 3:00-8:00 p.m. at Rodenberger Funeral Home, Napoleon and one hour before the service at the church.

Memorial donations in Norma's memory are suggested to St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Filling Home of Mercy, CHP Hospice, or a charity of the donor's choice.

Online condolences may be made at www.rodembergerfuneralhome.com.

“ Nadine, Gary and Robin:

My deepest sympathy on the loss of your mom. I have many wonderful memories of her throughout my life, and she was a caring and thoughtful Aunt to me. I am just sorry I never got that quilt that she promised to make for me if I ever got married. I guess that's on me, since I know she would have kept her word!

*Your cousin,
Michael Vajen Lee*
