“ Patsy was a wonderful traveler with our Center for Lifelong Learning. She was positive and dependable. And not so long ago out of the blue, she gave me a beautiful hand-crafted afghan. I curl up under it often in my TV room. I will miss that caring spirit.

“ I got to know Aunt Pat better during the time my Mom, Marie Yarnell, was in the Lutheran Home and also in the years before she went there. Since I was in Michigan, I often relied on Aunt Pat to check on Mom for me. She was always there for me and I will always remember her kindness and willingness to help me.
