“ *Dear Sally, Gary, and boys:
Please accept my condolences on the passing of your dad (Grandpa). I met him when I was your neighbor in Findlay and saw him often after that at your house or shopping at Meijer when I worked there. He was a great man and I know you loved him dearly.
I'm sorry I did not make the visitation..... I would have made sure I was there, but I didn't read the obituary in the paper until afterward.
I would have really enjoyed seeing you again.*

“ Lots of memories family time spent together! He was always there to lend a helping hand. He offered my dad odd jobs on the farm many times to help our family when dad was laid off... many a time :) A true and honorable soul! I will miss sitting with him in church. Thinking and praying for you all!
