“ I am in disbelief right now! Ran will be missed by everyone. He was my favorite cousin growing up. He was my protector when we were around the older kids. He was soft spoken and had a heart of gold. He had magical fingers that could dance on a rosewood neck and knew all the oldies and goldies! I have tears rolling and a great ache in my heart! He will surely be missed but never forgotten! I love you Ran!

“ My heartfelt condolences to the Shank family and extended relatives. This is sad news, he was a decent man, who was a reasonable and nice person. The brief time I visited him, was after he had a hernia operation. Rest well in Heaven Randy.

RIP Randy. He was a lot of fun to be around, he loved his family and he definitely loved country music and playing the guitar with family and friends.
