“ Diane,I was so sorry to hear about your Mom's passing on Christmas Eve, and you and your family have been in my thoughts and prayers ever since. Even though you knew this was coming, you are still never ready to say your final goodbye.You can feel so good about the loving care you gave to your mom, the special gatherings planned, and special gifts you made for her these last years. You told her and showed her your love when she was still here to enjoy it. I hope those memories will give you comfort in the days ahead. Don't feel like you have to come back to work too soon. We know that our environment is tough to be in when you have experienced a recent personal death. Take the time you need to begin healing.May you feel God's loving hand upon you in these next days.Sincerely,Karen ”
