“ The Goodman Family, You have my sincere sympathy on Ray's passing, we used to go to the Napoleon Church of Christ with the Goodman family. My wife passed away seven years ago, I sold the hose in Napoleon. I lived in an Assisted living Community near Maumee close to my daughter Cindy. I got the Covid in July,2020. When I got out of rehab I went to live with my son and wife at Rose Lake Coldwater, Mi. I'm better now so live in an Assisted Living unit in Coldwater. Miss the Napoleon church people.

“ Ray and Janet were first to visit if you were hospitalized. Great friends to have fun with. Hang out on the Maumee, or campground with everyone at the fireside in the evening. Our home has many reminders of Ray. Small woodworks that will be here even after we are gone. I will label them so our sons will know who created them. Memories of Ray are good, sweet, loving and kind. Memories of Ray are always "and Janet." We will love her for herself. She may not be as happy and laughing for some time. We understand.
