“ So many years attending the Capital City Classic and hanging out with Rick at the Saturday night parties that he put so much effort to pull off. The years of attending the Disney Tournament as well, staying in the same house and enjoying some Florida weather in the middle of winter. Rick was always the first to contact me to make sure we were going. The many times Rick would drive to Pittsburgh to see his beloved Pirates in person at PNC Park he would reach out so we could get together and hang out. All the time he spent giving Tommy Snee the business, for any or no reason was priceless.
Rest in peace my friend. I'm so glad our paths have crossed. I know you are already sorely missed by everyone who knew you.

“ It's impossible to describe how much Rick Fryman meant to us. He treated us like his own sons and made us feel like big leaguers. He provided us with experiences we otherwise would have never gotten. Because of Rick, we have many lifelong friendships. He is the most generous person we've ever known.

Rest in peace, Rick. Saying "thank you" feels inadequate, but thank you. We'll make sure to put the trash in the trash.

“ Rick Fryman was an easy man to describe. Friend, Leader, Passion, Baseball Man, funny. loved his wife Celeste and his daughter Karlee. His organization of everything was unparalleled. Rick always wanted the best for his friends. I knew him for close to 40 years. I went to college with him and spent endless hours playing baseball with #38. The baseball diamonds that we played in all over the country: Columbus, Canton, Clearwater, Orlando. Baltimore, Indianapolis or Atlanta. We always had fun and played the great game that all of us love. This man will be sorely missed in our world by many.many people. I will never forget him.

“ Rick and I had some great times and memories not related to baseball, surprisingly. The time at the rodeo and the weekend in Detroit at the Red Wings game versus the Bluejackets will never be forgotten. I am also blessed to have gotten to know his wife Celeste and his daughter Karlee. They are both great ladies and Rick was very proud of the things that they were involved in - me too.

“ I just lost a "brother". We had so much fun together with running the Columbus Men's Senior Baseball League. The trips to Arizona to play in the World Series were filled with lifetime memories. Some of the stories ("his brother") will never be forgotten. I could have never found anyone better than Rick to take over running the CMSBL and I still can't believe that he did it for 12 years while traveling back and forth from Napoleon. He hit a lot of "grand slams" in his life. Love you "brother" and miss you already.
