“ I met Sue in 3rd grade. Did a lot of sleepovers and had fun at our sr. prom and even when we got out of school. What a kind, loving person she was. She shared a special day with my parents, her birthday and their anniversary. She always asked about my mom as she remembered her helping pick out that prom dress. We had a lot of good times and I truly will miss her and our talks. Her mother was also a special person. She is now back home with her mom and dad. She will truly be missed.

“ *I became friends with Sue when I began school in Ridgeville Corners in the 4th grade. We had a lot of fun together, especially when she would invite me to sleep over where I got to experience her mother's delicious cooking! Her mom and dad were very gracious and loving people and they passed those traits on to Sue whose friendship to me was priceless! God broke the mold after Sue was born! Blessings and comfort to her family.
