I'm sorry I'm missing both Services because of the weather, but just know I'm thinking of you both. Praying for you both today as you lay Bob to rest. Love you both! ❤️❤️❤️

“ since I moved out of state when Brother Bob was only 12 years old, I feel that I did not really know him. I remember that I sat with him in Sunday school for a long period of time: not sure if he felt he would be left there and forgotten? I recall that he was a good basketball player in high school and as an adult was an avid race care enthusiast. He was born seven years after me on Dec 27th which was also Mom and Dad's wedding anniversary. I was born on December 25th. My sincere condolences are sent to Diana and Loretta. Brother Jim Lather
